Arcadia College AND ACADEMY OF THE URSULINE SISTERS.

The next regular session of this firstclass boarding and day school will begin on the First of September. The system of education pursued is designed to develop the moral, intellectual and physical powers of the pupils; to make them refined, accomplished and useful members of society.

The Sisters in charge are all graduates of first-class institutions and have a teachng experience of from twelve to fifteen vears, and therefore consider themselves competent to fully respond to the confidence which parents place in them by giving their pupils a solid education.

Pupils of all denominations are equally received—all interference with their convictions being carefully avoided.

For young lady boarders will be for the present, per session of five months, $75.00—payable in advance.

Terms for instruction in music, foreign languages, drawing, painting and or-namental handlwork can be had by ap-
